TIMELINE

INTERNATIONAL MEDIA
LATE 70's
Mr Eurnekian acquires Cablevision, at that moment one of the largest cable TV operators in Argentina.
CableVisión
MID 80's
His media group has grown into a multi-media conglomerate, with Cablevision, 2 TV stations, 14 radio stations and El Cronista Comercial, a financial daily.
EL CRONISTA
1995
Corporacion America sells Cablevision to TCI group.
LATE 90's
All the media-related assets are sold before the turn of the millennium.
SERVICES
2007
Corporacion America acquires Converse Bank, one of the leading retail banks in Armenia.
ConverseBank
2008
Corporacion America starts operating Haypost, the national postal service in Armenia, with over 883 branches in the country.
Հայփոստ
2015
In 4Q 2015 Converse Bank inaugurates branches in Israel and California, USA.
ENERGY
2006
The holding's energy division is launched in 2006 with the construction of Unitec Bio's biodiesel plant in the province of Santa Fe, Argentina.
unitecbio
2009
In 2009, Unitec Energy is created. The company buys some exploration blocks in Patagonia.
UNITEC ENERGY
2012
The energy division disembarks in the wind energy industry with two large wind farms in Maldonado, Uruguay. They are Carapé I and II, with an installed capacity of 90 MW.
2013
In the 1Q 2013, buys CGC, an oil and gas exploration and production Argentine company, based mainly in the Austral Basin of Southern Patagonia. The company, has also important midstream stakes in the two largest gas pipe-lines in Argentina.
CGC
2015
In 1Q , CGC acquires all the exploration and production blocks that Petrobras had in the Austral Basin of Southern Patagonia. After this deal, CGC is listed amongst the first five largest energy companies in Argentina.
1970
1980
1990
2000
2010
2025
1970
Under the family-established textile company UZAL, Eduardo Eurnekian expands the business creating a textile conglomerate that controls 2 cotton spinning mills, fabric production facilities, fabric dying plants and several textile manufacturing plants servicing the various brands it owned and represented.
LATE 70's
All the textile assets are sold.
TEXTILE AIRPORTS
1997
Corporacion America wins the tender for the operation of 33 airports in Argentina.
Aeropuertos Argentina 2000
2000
Corporacion America expands its airport business, disembarking in Uruguay, Ecuador, Peru, Brazil, Armenia and Italy.
2011
The holding sells its Duty Free operations company to Dufry International.
2015
With 53 airports under its helm and with half a dozen prospective tenders to be accomplished in the short time, Corporacion America is the largest airport operator in the world (according to the quantity of units).
2016
In 2016, Corporacion America Real Estate is created. The company develops projects in Argentina and Armenia.
2018
In Febreuary 2018 Corporación América Airports - the airport division of the holding - launched its first IPO at the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) under the ticket CAAP.
NYSE TECHNOLOGY
BRAZIL
ARGENTINA
unitecblue
2012
In June, Corporacion America diversifies into yet another industry: nanotechnology. In a mere eight-month period of time, Unitec Blue, a state of-the-art chip processing facility located 120 km south of Buenos Aires, is planned, built and launched. Unitec Blue is officially inaugurated in February 2013.
unitec
2014
In February Corporacion America acquires a 33% stake in Unitec Brazil, thus integrating Unitec Blue chip factory in Argentina with this Brazilian foundry in a bi-national technology business endeavor.
Located in Belo Horizonte, has had so far a 1 Billion USD capital investment.
TEXTILE BUSINESSES
MEDIA BUSINESSES
AIRPORT BUSINESSES
ENERGY BUSINESSES
SERVICE BUSINESSES
TECHNOLOGY BUSINESSES